Annual Index (Volume 30) 1998

Key — M/J:58 [May/June issue, page 58]

Subject Index

Alternative Rewards (See also Competency-Based Pay, Gainsharing, Incentives)

The Glass Wall: Shattering the Myth that Alternative Rewards Won't Work With Unions.....N/D:38
Companies no longer can forgo improvements alternative rewards can generate among union workers.

A Pay-for-Knowledge Compensation Program That Works M/A:69
Case Study: Pay-for-knowledge can increase productivity while providing workers with a more interesting and challenging work environment.

Plan Your Organization's Reward Strategy Through Pay-for Performance Dynamics M/J:67
The carrots in well-designed pay-for-performance plans help point your organization's cart in the desired direction.

Seven Dimensions of Successful Reward Plans J/A:71
The central importance of human capital calls for new ways of linking rewards to strategy.

Variable Pay: Do We Have the Basics in Place? J/A:12
Many companies are getting on the variable-pay bandwagon without considering the cost of the ride or whether it has any business value.

Benefits

Changing the CPI: What Effect Would It Have on Employee Benefits? J/F:35
A downward adjustment of the key inflation index—the CPI—may not be imminent, but it still might be a good idea for employers to anticipate where the impact could hit hardest.

Communicating Benefits: A Double-Click Away S/O:60
Whether to develop an intranet centers not on "if" but on "when." For most companies, the answer is now!

Linking Work/Life Benefits to Performance J/A:66
Offering work/life benefits as part of a menu of rewards for high performance rather than as an entitlement may prove to be a valuable recruitment and retention tool.

Board of Directors' Compensation

Compensating the Entrepreneurial Board—A Holistic Approach.....J/A:49
For board of directors' compensation to play a meaningful role in motivating the best board performance possible, it should have six key characteristics.

Compensation Strategy

Compensation Management and Cultural Change at IBM: Paying the People in Black at Big Blue.....M/J:51
Case Study: Compensation strategy has been important to Big Blue's transformation to an attractive employer for hip IT Generation Xers and People in Black.

Maximize Your Compensation ROI With High-Yield Investments in Human Capital.....M/A:59
Case Study: The four-step design process used by Qualex Inc. gave it the biggest bang for its invested buck.

Measuring Trends in the Structure and Levels of Compensation Costs J/F:45
Learning how the BLS gathers data can help compensation professionals get the background that lies behind the trends.

Value-Chain Compensation.....M/J:60
To create more effective compensation programs, companies need to begin looking at compensation as a value-creating function.

Competency-Based Pay

Competency-Based Pay: A Concept in Evolution S/O:21
The payoff can be great, but competency-based pay can also be problematic—only a company that is committed to significant change should consider it.

Relating Competencies to Pay: The UK Experience M/J:28
Despite criticism, divided opinions, confusing terminology, and imprecise measurements, more companies are linking pay to competencies. It may not be such a bad idea after all.

Consumer Price Index

Changing the CPI: What Effect Would It Have on Employee Benefits? J/F:35
A downward adjustment of the key inflation index—the CPI—may not be imminent, but it still might be a good idea for employers to anticipate where the impact could hit hardest.

Executive Compensation

Executive Compensation: Finding a Balance in the Quest for Value.....J/F:29
Case Studies: Three companies strive to balance macroeconomic forces with performance measures and rewards that emphasize the more controllable microeconomic aspects of the business and its fundamental value.

Gainsharing

Gainsharing Plans Spurs Record Productivity and Payouts at AmeriSteel N/D:46
Case Study: AmeriSteel's experience shows that gainsharing can generate 8% average annual productivity increases and substantial rewards for high-performing employees.

Global Compensation and Benefits

Beyond Pay: What Rewards Work Best When Doing Business in China.....N/D:51
Besides lots of money, offering promotion and training are key to finding and keeping local talent in China.

The Euro: A Shot Heard Around the Pension Fund World M/J:40
Europe's single currency promises to create opportunities as well as vexing new problems for pension fund managers. Are they prepared to deal with the issues?

New CBR Research Report: Euro Launch May Be More Whimper than Bang M/J:41
Just when you thought your company was safe to swim in the year 2000…

Rethinking International Compensation.....J/F:15

The logic of the global marketplace argues for strategic flexibility, rather than national culture, as the basis for managing compensation and reward systems internationally.

Relating Competencies to Pay: The UK Experience M/J:28
Despite criticism, divided opinions, confusing terminology, and imprecise measurements, more companies are linking pay to competencies. It may not be such a bad idea after all.

Pay Clubs in the UK J/F:56
In the UK, employers use pay clubs to share information on many aspects of compensation and HR practices. This study from one of England's leading compensation research organizations assesses the usefulness of pay clubs and the salary surveys they produce.

Incentives

Alfie Kohn's Theory of Money and Motivation is Outdated (Letter response) M/J:5

Avoiding Performance Traps: Ensuring Effective Incentive Design and Implementation J/A:57
As incentive design evolves from simply measuring performance to driving it, so does the importance of HR's role in the development and execution of corporate strategy.

Challenging Behaviorist Dogma: Myths About Money and Motivation M/A:27
Response: The jazziest, most expensive comp system ever devised can take you only to the baseline, the zero point. Moreover, preoccupation with it can distract you from what can really move an organization forward.

Developing Management Incentives that Drive Results J/A:41
Organizational realities are critical, but often overlooked, factors in incentive plan design.

How American Workers See the Rewards of Work.....J/F:24
Research Study: Employees like traditional merit pay systems. The challenge for employers is to improve incentive pay plans so that they appeal to employees also.

Let the Evidence Speak: Financial Incentives Are Effective! M/A:26
Opinion: Let us accept the inevitable—money matters. It matters to us, it matters to you, it matters to employees, and it matters to managers and executives.

Using Employee Attitude Surveys to Evaluate a New Incentive Pay Program.....J/F:40
Case Study: In designing and evaluating a pay plan, attitudinal data can provide a solid foundation.

Information Exchange Network

(The Network provides a forum for CBR subscribers to share their concerns and their expertise. CBR summarizes the exchanges.)

The Network Discusses: Global Recruiting, Profit Sharing, and Succession Planning M/A:38

The Network Discusses: Top Ten Compensation and Benefits Concerns S/O:19

Letters

Alfie Kohn's Theory of Money and Motivation Is Outdated M/J:5

Metrics Reports

Compensation, Inflation, and Productivity in the Coming Year N/D:14
Forecasters generally agree that labor markets will remain tight through 1999 and that wages will rise 4.4% on average—or 2% to 3% more than inflation.

Compensation in the New Economy J/F:7
With compensation apparently no longer quite so tightly coupled to labor supply and price stability, the New Economy offers fertile ground for experimentation.

Labor Markets and Compensation M/A:21
Creating programs that will attract and retain employees in tight labor markets will be the central challenge for compensation professionals in the coming years.

Pay and Promotion Lawsuits Surge and Judgments Get More Costly S/O:16
Lawsuits alleging illegal pay and promotion practices have rocked some of the country's most prestigious firms.

Union Membership and the Union Wage Differential.....M/J:16
As tighter labor markets push wages higher, the differential favoring union workers will shrink, hindering union organizing efforts.

Where Are Wages Headed? J/A:7
Despite the tight labor markets, recent real wage increases have been remarkably small—except for significant increases in starting salaries for computer-related fields.

Part-Time, Temporary & Contingent Workers

Part-Time and Temporary Employees Demand Better Pay and More Benefits N/D:21
CBR Minisurvey: The pressures of a tight labor market are affecting policies for part-time as well as full-time workers.

Pension and Retirement Issues (See also Global Compensation and Benefits)

Cash Balance Pension Plan Facilitates Restructuring the Workforce at AT&T N/D:25
Case Study: A cash balance pension plan not only can make retirement benefits more visible to employees but also help a company restructure its workforce.

Meeting the Communication Challenge: Money Today or a Pension Far Away? N/D:32
Account-based plans say "thanks for last year." Pension plans say "thanks for your career." What should your plan say?

Social Security Reform: Start With the Facts S/O:42
Opinion: The proposals vary, but the experts agree: Social Security as we know it is in dire need of change.

Social Security Reform: Another Look at the Facts ..S/O:43
Response #1: Private investment of workers' Social Security taxes means more control of their financial future.

Social Security Reform: The Facts From the Employer's Viewpoint.....S/O:56
Response #2: Social Security reform must protect employer-sponsored retirement plans.

Relocation

It's Time to Relocate Employees: Will They Accept the Transfer? M/A:51
Overcoming employee reluctance to relocate requires generous benefits and consideration of family needs.

Salary Surveys

A Formidable New Compensation Tool: Bureau of Labor Statistics' New National Compensation Survey ..S/O:29
For the first time, the BLS will provide interrelated statistics on wage levels, benefit incidence, employer compensation costs, and more.

Guide to Salary Survey Data on the Web M/A:16
The rise in Internet technology marks the beginning of the end of salary surveys as we know them.

International Sources of Salary Data M/J:22
General market data on salaries and wages are available from the central government statistics agencies in most countries.

Pay Clubs in the UK J/F:56
In the UK, employers use pay clubs to share information on many aspects of compensation and HR practices. This study from one of England's leading compensation research organizations assesses the usefulness of pay clubs and the salary surveys they produce.

Survey Reports

Part-Time and Temporary Employees Demand Better Pay and More Benefits N/D:21
CBR Minisurvey: The pressures of a tight labor market are affecting policies for part-time as well as full-time workers.

Stock Option Plans

Accounting and Tax Consideration in Stock Option Plans J/A:91
Tax laws favor ISOs but at the price of heavier restrictions. NQSOs are less tax-favored but more flexible.

Designing and Implementing a Broad-Based Stock Option Plan.....J/A:23
Before proceeding with any broad-based stock option plan, balance the benefits against its potentially significant costs.

Do Broad-Based Stock Options Create Value?.....J/A:78
Stock ownership as a broad-based compensation tool is becoming more popular—what we don't know yet is whether it creates value for employers and employees.

How to Use Technology to Effectively Deliver Broad-Based Stock Option Plans J/A:87
New technologies can lower administrative costs and increase flexibility of broad-based stock option plans.

Variable Pay (See Alternative Rewards)

Workers Compensation

A Success Story: Workers' Compensation Reform in California M/A:41
Not all the news about workers' compensation is bad—California's costs plummeted after it enacted sweeping reforms.

Author Index

Abosch, Kenan S.
Variable Pay: Do We Have the Basics in Place? J/A:12

Abdnor, Leanne J.
Social Security Reform: Another Look at the Facts ..S/O:43

Ackley, Dennis R.
Meeting the Communication Challenge: Money Today or a Pension Far Away?.....N/D:32

Armstrong, Michael and Duncan Brown
Relating Competencies to Pay: The UK Experience M/J:28

Ash, Remy P. (See Meltzer, Mark)

Bailey, George (See Hale, Jamie)

Balkcom, John E. (See Brossy, Roger)

Benjamin, Ellen R. (See Cira, Darrell J.)

Bloom, Matt (See Milkovich, George T.)

Bohl, Don (See Jefferson, Felicia)

Brossy, Roger and John E. Balkcom
Case Studies: Executive Compensation: Finding a Balance in the Quest for Value.....J/F:29

Brown, Duncan (See Armstrong, Michael)

Burlingame, Harold W. and Michael J. Gulotta
Case Study: Cash Balance Pension Plan Facilitates Restructuring the Workforce at AT&T.....N/D:25

Cira, Darrell J. and Ellen R. Benjamin
Competency-Based Pay: A Concept in Evolution S/O:21

Clements, Bruce
Accounting and Tax Considerations in Stock Option Plans.....J/A:91

Dalton, Glenn
The Glass Wall: Shattering the Myth that Alternative Rewards Won't Work With Unions.....N/D:38

Duncan, Dan (See Gross, Steven E.)

Eskew, Don E. (See Heneman, Robert L.)

Federico, Richard F. and Howard B. Goldsmith
Linking Work/Life Benefits to Performance J/A:66

Fox, Julie A. (See Heneman, Robert L.)

Funari, Mary (See Siegler, Ira)

Goldsmith, Howard (See Federico, Richard F.)

Gonzalez, Juan Pablo (See LeBlanc, Peter V.)

Gregory, Janice M.
Social Security Reform: The Facts from the Employer's Viewpoint S/O:56

Gross, Steven E. and Dan Duncan
Case Study: Gainsharing Plan Spurs Record Productivity and Payouts at AmeriSteel N/D:46

Gulotta, Michael J. (See Burlingame, Harold W.)

Gupta, Nina and Jason D. Shaw
Let the Evidence Speak: Financial Incentives Are Effective!.....M/A:26

Hale, Jamie and George Bailey
Seven Dimensions of Successful Reward Plans J/A:71

Hansen, Fay
Compensation, Inflation, and Productivity in the Coming Year.....N/D:14

Compensation in the New Economy J/F:7

Guide to Salary Survey Data on the Web M/A:16

International Sources of Salary Data M/J:22

Labor Markets and Compensation M/A:21

Pay and Promotion Lawsuits Surge and Judgments Get More Costly S/O:16

Union Membership and the Union Wage Differential.....M/J:16

Where Are Wages Headed J/A:7

Heneman, Robert L., Don E. Eskew and Julie A. Fox
Case Study: Using Employee Attitude Surveys to Evaluate a New Incentive Pay Program J/F:40

Jarcho, David
How to Use Technology to Effectively Deliver Broad-Based Stock Option Plans J/A:87

Jefferson, Felicia and Don Bohl
CBR Minisurvey: Part-Time and Temporary Employees Demand Better Pay and More Benefits N/D:21

Johnson, Mike
Beyond Pay: What Rewards Work Best When Doing Business in China.....N/D:51

Johnson, Sam T.
Plan Your Organization's Reward Strategy Through Pay-for-Performance Dynamics M/J:67

Kilgour, John G.
A Success Story: Workers' Compensation Reform in California M/A:41

Klein, Gerald D.
Case Study: A Pay-for-Knowledge Compensation Program That Works M/A:69

Klinck, Brad (See Wasserman, Simon)

Kohn, Alfie
Changing Behaviorist Dogma: Myths About Money and Motivation M/A:27

Kuzmits, Frank E.
Communicating Benefits: A Double-Click Away S/O:60

Krzystofiak, Frank J. (See Newman, Jerry M.)

LeBlanc, Peter V., Juan Pablo Gonzalez and Jeffrey A. Oxman
Case Study: Maximize Your Compensation ROI With High-Yield Investments in Human Capital M/A:59

LeBlanc, Peter V. and Paul W. Mulvey
Research Study: How American Workers See the Rewards of Work J/F:24

McKenzie, Francine C. and Matthew D. Shilling
Avoiding Performance Measurement Traps: Ensuring Effective Incentive Design and Implementation J/A:57

Meltzer, Mark and Remy P. Ash
Compensating the Entrepreneurial Board—A Holistic Approach.....J/A:49

Mileski, Alan S.
It's Time to Relocate Employees: Will They Accept the Transfer? M/A:51

Milkovich, George T. and Matt Bloom
Rethinking International Compensation.....J/F:15

Mulvey, Paul W. (See LeBlanc, Peter V.)

Newman, Jerry M. and Frank J. Krzystofiak
Value-Chain Compensation.....M/J:60

Newman, Jerry M. and Melissa Waite
Do Broad-Based Stock Options Create Value?.....J/A:78

Oxman, Jeffrey A. (See LeBlanc, Peter. V.)

Patterson, Martha Priddy
Social Security Reform: Start With the Facts S/O:42

Richter, Andrew S.
Compensation Management and Cultural Change at IBM: Paying the People in Black at Big Blue M/J:51

Schwenk, Albert E.
Measuring Trends in the Structure and Levels of Compensation Costs J/F:45

Semler, Richard P.
Making a Difference: Developing Management Incentives that Drive Results J/A:41

Shaw, Jason D. (See Gupta, Nina)

Shilling, Matthew D. (See McKenzie, Francine C.)

Siegler, Ira and Mary Funari
Changing the CPI: What Effect Would It Have on Employee Benefits? J/F:35

Staiman, Jeff and Kerry Tompson
Designing and Implementing a Broad-Based Stock Option Plan.....J/A:23

Tompson, Kerry (See Staiman, Jeff)

Waite, Melissa (See Newman, Jerry M.)

Wasserman, Simon and Brad Klinck
The Euro: A Shot Heard Around the Pension Fund World M/J:40

Wasserman, Simon and Brad Klinck
New CBR Research Report: Euro Launch May Be More Whimper Than Bang M/J:41

Wiatrowski, William J.
A Formidable New Compensation Tool: Bureau of Labor Statistics' New National Compensation Survey S/O:29